From Your Pastor...

Our Mission ...

*"A people gathered in Christ;
nurtured in His Spirit;
and sent in His name."*

Even as we prepare this newsletter, we are also preparing to go to Kentucky to build a house for the Jones family! The Mountain Outreach project is nothing new for College Park, but we need to remember that familiarity can sometimes breed apathy. But with each new year, and each new family, and each new house, I am reminded just how fortunate I am. I recognize that God has blessed me far beyond my expectations, and certainly more than I deserve! But my guess is that all of us could say the same, so it should leave us in a state of wanting to help others to whom life's circumstances have been more harsh. But within this rationale we must be careful, because if it were need alone that drove our mission, we would never get outside of our own community; so great is the need here as well. So our mission must be a result of calling...knowing that God has led us to the opportunity that awaits, and knowing that He will guide our steps, words and deeds, as we walk in the footsteps of our Savior on a dusty, hot piece of property in Williamsburg, Kentucky...as we walk daily in our own community...as we serve faithfully in the body of Christ.
