Offering Envelopes

The 2007 offering envelopes are available for pickup in the Sunday School classrooms. If you are not a member of a Sunday School class, you may pick up your envelopes in Smith Hall.

They say that “good things come to those who wait;” however, there are those who wait in a better manner than others. Being a “less than patient person,” waiting is often a time of frustration or irritation. It often becomes more about the wait than about anticipation of what is coming. This week we will conclude Advent season, a season of waiting. We have been awaiting the Christ Child and pondering the gifts that His coming brings. It is my prayer that as we approach Christmas, you will let go of the frustration and irritation that so often accompanies holiday preparations and instead anticipate His coming. For, when we quit concentrating on other things and look for Him, we begin to see Him in places that we didn't expect. We realize that He is already at work among us. Wait for Him. Look for Him. Know that He has come.

IN TOUCH...with Jeff

It has been a lot of fun to travel along this Advent journey. There have been some amusing times as well as meaningful worship experiences over the first three weeks of Advent. It will be exciting to see what God has in store for us in the last few days leading up to Christmas. I am thankful for everyone who has played a part in making this Advent season memorable.

Even as the days to Christmas get fewer, I am looking forward to what 2007 will bring. One of the early goals for the Family Ministry team in 2007 is to finish the plans for the remodeling of the preschool and children's ministry areas in the education building. Many of you have inquired about the status this project, and we are thankful for the many words of support. Please rest assured that the plans are approaching the final stages.

When the plan comes to the church, it will have gone through the Family Ministry Team, the Finance Committee, the Properties Committee, and the Deacons. By bringing as many people on board with the process, the church can be assured that the plan that will come before the church will be well thought out and researched. Our goal for every area of ministry, including the preschool and children's ministry, is to provide the resources and support to help our people grow in their faith relationship with Christ. I feel confident that 2007 will be a year when our ministry becomes richer and deeper in Christ!

Two of our Own Honored

Doug Somers and Tony Perkins received high honors at the Piedmont District Scout Banquet on December 7. Doug received the 2006 Scouter of the Year Award and Tony received the 2006 Venture Scouter of the Year Award. Both of them have worked very hard for many years in Scouting, and we congratulate them on their accomplishments.

Non-Taxable IRA Withdrawals

If you are age 70 1/2 or older and have an individual retirement account (IRA), you have a potential tax savings opportunity in 2006 and 2007 by using your IRA to make contributions to your church or any charitable organization. This opportunity expires at the end of 2007 and is of particular value to taxpayers that usually don't itemize deductions on their tax return. The distribution counts toward your required minimum distribution for the year and is not considered to be taxable income. If you wish to take advantage of this opportunity, be sure to speak with your financial institution. If you have any questions, James Cobbler will be glad to talk with you.
