From Your Pastor...

Our Mission ...

*"A people gathered in Christ;
nurtured in His Spirit;
and sent in His name."*

It is really easy to get excited about going on a mission trip! There is something special about the preparations and the journey to a place away from home to help those who really need help. A separate issue that we often don't want to address is how well we are doing the same kind of work here in our own community, and I am happy to say that we are doing better in that regard. Team IAM has a couple of projects in the works, and many of you have reported how you are more actively engaged in local missions of all kinds. These missions are faith at work. They are the expression of the hope that we have in Jesus Christ, and I am convinced that these acts of compassion are one way that the unbelieving world may come to believe.

Now that we are in the full swing of summer, let me encourage you to keep College Park in your prayers even when you are out of town. There is a lot of "divine activity" here with all of the youth/children's events and special programs and services. There are many opportunities to invite guests, and I hope that you will look over the enclosed calendar, and make a conscious plan to invite people to The Park this summer. One such event is our "Dinner on the Grounds" on Sunday evening, July 8th. This is a good 'ole pot-luck dinner that we plan to have on the front lawn beginning at 5:30pm. Bring a covered dish, a guest, and join us!

See You Sunday!

A NOTE FROM MARY

Praise is deeper than the lips - Robert Browning

I have a friend who has an unbelievable way of seeing and hearing God speak in his everyday life. He is a totally laid-back, surfer-type guy who is content to be in the background of any situation in which he is involved. He is not the type of person who commands attention or speaks with great authority about scripture and theology. As a result, a lot of people miss the depth of his faith and knowledge. Oh, and he doesn't sing! I know; it's hard to imagine worship without song! I can remember being really irritated with him one evening after music in VBS because I felt he was not being supportive enough in singing and encouraging his group to sing. I was debating whether to say something or not when he approached me to ask me about one of the songs. You see, while I was irritated that he was not openly praising, he was struck by one of the songs in such a way that he couldn't sing. His worship was so deep that he could only stand there and worship God in silence. At that moment, his praise was beyond what could be expressed verbally. Needless to say, I was very much humbled at that moment. You see, God clearly tells us in scripture that He is looking at our hearts and our lives to reflect our love for Him. Songs are great. I, personally, couldn't live without them. But it is not our words and songs that God desires; rather, it is our hearts and lives.

Crisis Control Gift for July:

Macaroni and Cheese

*Last month, 50 boxes of Hamburger Helper were collected at College Park.

"Whatever you do for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you do for me."
Matthew 25:40
