From Your Pastor...

Why am I here? Why should I believe in God? Why should I trust the Bible? Why is the world so messed up? Why the conflict...science and the Bible? Why Jesus? Why? Why? Why?

The next two Sundays will wrap up our special 40-day WHY? Journey. I hope that you have learned from the time we have experienced together asking some of the toughest questions we can ask and studying together to seek God's answers! I continue to hear wonderful feedback from the small group studies on Sunday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings, and our desire has been that the Sunday morning worship services have been a great source of hope as well. I pray that our 40-day journey will not end on the 21st, but will continue as we understand that the nature of learning is related to asking questions. We know that is a basic premise of education, but often times we are afraid to ask the tough questions for many reasons.

Let me take a moment to also invite each of you to our LIFE service on Sunday evenings. We have been enjoying some great services together as a part of the WHY? series, and it has been enriching to share our experiences and learn from each other. If you have never been to our LIFE service, or haven't been lately, let me encourage you to give it a try this Sunday evening at 7:00 in Smith Hall!

Reminder: all of our morning services are recorded and are available online at our church website www.collegeparkbaptist.org Click on the Worship tab at the top of the page and follow the instructions.

See You Sunday!

A NOTE FROM MARY

Reflecting on our services highlighting the wonder and science of God's creation, I thought I would share a hymn with you by Jeffery Rowthorn:

Creating God, Your Fingers Trace

*Creating God, your fingers trace the bold designs of farthest space;
Let sun and moon and stars and light and what lies hidden praise your might.
Sustaining God, your hands uphold earth's mysteries known or yet untold;
Let water's fragile blend with air, enabling life, proclaim your care.
Redeeming God, your arms embrace all now despised for creed or race;
Let peace descending like a dove, make known on earth your healing love.
Indwelling God, your gospel claims one family with a billion names;
Let every life be touched by grace until we praise you face to face.*

Announcing: The Great Piano Bench/Bookshelf Search chances are, if you have ever participated in the music programs of College Park, you may have an old folder, anthem, or other piece of music hiding in your house somewhere. If so, we would love to have it back. Now is the time to turn it in-no penalties or late fees!! Feel free to anonymously turn it in to the office or in the basket outside the chapel.
