From Your Pastor...

Summer is here! There always seems to be an increase in activity and excitement during the summer months. With that in mind, let me encourage you to hang on to your newsletters and refer to them often. There are many opportunities to “plug into” missions and ministry opportunities with family members and/or friends. Serving side-by-side helps build strong relationships within the church family! We will also have many fellowship options that are a little different from our school year calendar, and those are wonderful opportunities to invite new people into our fellowship.

One such opportunity is our Wednesday night schedule this summer, when we will be fellowshiping and studying together around the theme of Live & Learn. We will continue this series on June 25th, with a cookout at 6:30, followed by our Live & Learn study. As a reminder, the calendar for these special Wednesday night studies is posted all around the church, and there are copies available at the Welcome/Information Center that you can give as an invitation to others!

We continue to experience meaningful worship each Sunday, and we encourage you to be with us for worship whenever you are in town this summer. This Sunday we will be studying Matthew 10:24-39, a passage that is often misunderstood. Take a few minutes and read this passage, and then come prepared to worship God with us!

See You Sunday!

A NOTE FROM MARY

"I will not sacrifice to the Lord my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing."
2 Samuel 24:24

In this passage we find that David had sinned against God, and, as a result, a plague had come upon the nation of Israel. He decided to build an altar, and he was offered the place to do it for free. The above verse is his response. You see, David understood something that is fundamental about repentance and even about worship: true worship costs us something. We can readily admit that worship costs us our time, and some may feel that is enough. However, true worship requires more than that. It requires response. Worship may cost us our comfort: we may have to change what we are comfortable doing. Worship may cost us our attitudes. You see, God's idea of worship goes beyond putting on nice clothes and sitting in a service. God says over and over that He desires mercy and justice more than sacrifice. True worship requires our hearts, our talents and abilities, our wallets, our comfort, and our attitudes. It means living and loving like Christ did, worshipping with our lives. Giving worship that costs us nothing of ourselves is, at best, incomplete.

"True worship requires our hearts, talents and abilities, our wallets, our comfort, and our attitudes."

Mountain Outreach June 29 - July 4

Carla and Brian Hunter are excited that their children will have a safe, secure, warm home next winter. The move will take the family to a new school district — and a better school than their current assignment. They look forward to meeting our team and working with us during the build.

Pray for your involvement. Sheets are in the Smith Hall entry to show the household items we need, the people we have going, and the food items the cook team needs. We have a goal of $24,000 for the building materials.

Should you come? Should you donate? Should you be involved? Ask God for discernment for you and your family.

Youth

First of all, on certain Tuesday nights, the youth will embark upon a series of excursions called Destination X. These will be on June 24, July 8, and July 22, 6:00 - 9:00 pm.

Our Sunday night programming includes FGO² and AfterLIFE. "FGO" stands for "For Guys/Girls Only" and will take place on June 22 and July 20, at 5:00 pm (unless otherwise stated), extending until the 7:00 pm LIFE service.

On Sunday, July 6, after the LIFE service (hence the name AfterLIFE), the youth will fellowship at a host house, 8:00 pm - 10:00 pm.

In addition, we have some exciting trips lined up, including Mountain Outreach (June 29 - July 4), Carowinds (July 9), and Youth Camp (July 14 - 18). Cost is $100 for Mountain Outreach, $50 for Carowinds, and $300 for Youth Camp. All of the specifics are given in the youth "Summer at the Park" newsletter, which is available at the Welcome Desk or in the church office. Mountain Outreach and Youth Camp will require more than the normal CPBC Medical Release forms. We apologize for the added inconvenience, but in order for your teenager(s) to participate in these trips, the necessary forms must be submitted.

Children

For both preschoolers and children who have completed grades 1-5, we are offering our annual Day Camp with a twist. We will continue learning about God's Top 10. Day Camp for ages 0-6 will be

Then, July 27 - 31, 5:30 - 8:00 pm is VBS. There is a sign-up table outside Smith Hall. Also, on Wednesday nights, children from age 4 to 5th grade (completed) will meet in the Adult I area to participate in their own Live and Learn study. When it is time for Bible study, just have the children meet Britt at the Welcome Desk.
