From Your Pastor...

We have experienced a remarkable spring, and now we are on the doorstep of summer! It doesn't seem possible that time passes so quickly, yet here we are almost to Father's Day, Mountain Outreach, and so much more. With summer comes many opportunities to explore creative new ministries, but also there is a danger of becoming disconnected with your church family as your routine changes and schedules take you out of town more. Let me encourage you to make a conscious effort to stay connected to "the body" during the summer months...all of us will benefit from that effort!

This Sunday is time to celebrate the accomplishments of our graduates, and I want to encourage you to be here and speak a word of encouragement to each of them. If you will allow me a moment of personal reflection, I am particularly grateful to this congregation for the love and support you have offered my children. Carson was barely a year old when we came here, and now he is graduating from high school and preparing to leave for college. Through the 17+ years we have worked with you, Carson and Ashtin have always been allowed, and encouraged by you, to "be their own person," and not pressured to conform to some abstract expectation of what a "Youth Minister's Kid" or "Preacher's Kid" should look or act like. I am very blessed and grateful!

Blessings and peace...

Ramon

A NOTE FROM MARY

Vacations are lovely things. Every time I take one I am reminded that God created us as beings who need to rest and, dare I say it, play. Sometimes I forget that in the beginning God set aside a designated time for Sabbath. He didn't set aside a place, but a time. Now I have come to a point in my life where I truly believe that, more than any other thing, time is my most valued commodity. I hate to waste money, but I really hate to waste time. However, I realize at times that my need to be productive leads me to forget to rest. I have to remind myself to relax and rest, that God commands a Sabbath.

While on vacation, I read a National Geographic article about longevity. It followed people groups all around the world who had particularly long life spans and tracked what foods and habits were thought to lead to their long lives. One of the groups they focused on was a group of Seventh-day Adventists in California. What I found interesting is that, in addition to their diet, the article hailed their adherence to the Sabbath and their close knit relationships as a factor in their long lives. So, their time of rest and worship and their fellowship were in part responsible for longevity.

As a Christ follower, I am becoming more and more aware that there is a need in my own life to relax and rest and just be attentive to what God is doing around me. It is awfully hard to be sensitive to the Spirit when I am focused on the next task. It is near impossible to be alert to the people and needs around me when I am watching the time. And so, I am reminded (again!) to be still and know that He is God.

Jesus repeated the question:
“Simon son of John, do you love me?”

“Yes, Lord,” Peter said,
“you know I love you.”

“Then take care of my sheep,”
Jesus said.

Joseph and Amy Kidd are excited that they will be moving into a new home soon. College Park's annual mission to build a house for a needy family will enable the Kidds to raise their daughter in a safe, secure house. There is a display set up outside Smith Hall where you can sign up to donate your time, your furniture, your food, or your money toward this wonderful project.

"History Highlight"

Church members and guests were excited to attend the first worship service in the new sanctuary on June 13, 1954. Just two weeks later, the first baptism was held in the new building. Many church members and friends of the church contributed money to purchase furnishings for the sanctuary, such as a pulpit, pulpit chairs, communion table, flower stands, hymnals, a piano, flowers, flower vase, Venetian blinds, and a water cooler. A service of dedication and an open house was held on October 3, 1954. This special date was also the fifth anniversary of the church constitution.
