

HIGHLIGHTS

College Park Baptist Church
1701 Polo Road, Winston-Salem, NC 27106

From Your Pastor...

We had a tremendous day of worship this Sunday at College Park! It was week #1 of the Fearless emphasis in both the 9:00 Re:Creation and 11:00 worship services. If I could summarize our discussions of week one with just one sentence, it would be: "Fear may fill our world, but it doesn't have to fill our hearts." (Fearless, Max Lucado, p.13)

This Sunday we will worship around the theme of "Fear of Not Mattering." If you've ever had moments of doubting self-worth (if we're honest, most of us have experienced these), then we have some wonderful words of assurance from God to be rediscovered!

Then next Sunday, February 21st, we will look at the "Fear of Disappointing God," and what it means to truly accept God's forgiveness..

Also, on the evening of the 21st, we will have an Ordination Service for Mary Keltner. It will take place at 4:00pm in the Sanctuary, followed by a reception in Smith Hall. This will be a very meaningful time of worship, and I know you will want to attend if you are able.

Wednesday evening, February 17th, we will have our Ash Wednesday service at 7:00pm in the Sanctuary. This is always a meaningful time for reflection, and I invite you to worship with us as we begin the season of Lent.

Another word about Re:Creation... This past Sunday we had 15 visitors in Sunday School. This is the most we have had in a year, and 13 of them were tied directly to Adult One (8 adults plus 5 children). Sounds like we're on target, huh? Please keep praying for this service!

Blessings and peace,
Ramon

A NOTE FROM MARY

I had an interesting moment this morning as I began to teach a small group for Fearless. I looked at my group and saw three strong women, three very strong women, the kind of women you look at and think, "Man, they can do anything they set their minds to do." I immediately had to go off the book and admit to them that they did not strike me as the type to deal with fear a lot. And I had to question why I made that assumption. I also had to admit that sometimes I do make the assumption that people are doing okay when they aren't. I've had another conversation recently in which I expressed the reality that often we look at others in the church and have no idea of what they are dealing with outside of the walls of the church. We see strong Christian sisters and brothers, leaders, who are hurting, yet we are unaware because the needs aren't shared publicly and, again, the assumption is made that everything is okay. It reminded me of an anthem that has been sitting on my desk for a while (which will need to be sung soon).

It says:

Pray for the person on your left.

Pray for the person on your right.

They may seem strong,

but we don't know all of the struggles and the burdens they hold. We pray, Lord we pray.

Give them power to face the day.

They try to be strong, but only You know all of the struggles and the burdens they hold.

We pray, Lord, we pray,

Give them power to face the day.

I know that sometimes the Spirit leads us to pray for people and we don't even know why. If this article has brought someone to mind, I challenge you to pray and to let them know that God placed them on your heart. They may need to hear that you (and God!) love them.

IN TOUCH...with Jeff

Come and find out how at our Spring Youth Retreat!

Our Spring Retreat is going to be a little different this year and we are EXCITED about what is happening!! We are going to be a part of a state-wide youth retreat called "The Big Game."

This event is sponsored by several local churches and the CBF of NC (basically a bunch of really cool people who do church like we do). They are having their state meeting right here in Winston the weekend of March 19. We thought we could use this chance to get together with some other churches, have some fun, learn a little bit, and serve the city of Winston-Salem.

Check out the youth section at our church web site to find out how to sign up by February 28!

Hoops4Him Basketball

Game schedule

Due to the recent inclement weather, several adjustments have been made to the Hoops4Him schedule. Please check out the web site www.hoops4him.org for the latest game information! Thanks for your support!

Primary Basketball at CPBC

Thursday nights, 6:30-7:30

Primary Basketball is for all kids, from age 4 through the 3rd grade. The league happens every night now through February 25. We spend one hour (6:30-7:30 p.m.) working on the fundamentals of basketball while having tons of fun! The cost for the league is $20 per player, with a family maximum of $40. Children may register when they arrive. Call Jeff Allen at 768-5870 with questions!

Children/Youth Basketball Banquet

March 2, 6:00-7:30

Well, it's time to celebrate another great year of basketball at College Park! So all team members, coaches, and parents are invited to attend our annual Basketball Banquet in Smith Hall on March 2. We will enjoy a hamburger/hot dog dinner, a trophy ceremony, and reliving some of the fun stories from the season. There is no charge, but a love offering will be taken to help defray some of the cost for the banquet. We look forward to celebrating CPBC basketball together!

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRY

College Parkers

The monthly meeting is on February 18. Jay Callahan will showcase a fascinating collection of bugles dating back to WWII and tell their stories. Michael Sloane from Cruise Connections will be present to talk about a cruise. The covered-dish luncheon will begin at 11:30.

A trip to Campbell University to participate in Senior Fest is scheduled for March 9. David Crabtree, news anchor for WRAL-TV, will be the featured speaker. Breakout sessions on topics of interest to seniors will fill out the day. The cost will be $10 for lunch. Sign up by telling Jason Cogdill, Charles Edwards, or calling the church office.

Barbie Morgan has been working with an orphanage in Haiti for several years. The current home for the 18 boys plus staff was completely destroyed in the earthquake. Barbie is collecting specific items to send to Haiti so the children can begin living in the new home. The new building is not finished, but it has a roof and walls. That is more than the boys have now.

Boxes are in the entry for collections of sheet sets, towels, pillows, toiletries, and dishes. The collection will last for 3 weeks. Filled boxes will be sent March 4. Information sheets are posted beside the display. God bless this effort!
