From Your Pastor...

2011 is off to a great start, and I'm really excited about several things that will be taking place during the next several weeks/months! So I would like to give you a preview...

Sunday, February 6th is the 1st Anniversary of our Re:Creation service. This service has grown and continues to grow. We have seen many new people come to College Park as a result of this new service. There are so many people that make a service like this work including the band, the technology crew, Cecelia's Café crew, and all those who help us with setup and clean-up. On the 6th, we hope to have our largest attendance to date. So if you know someone who may favor this style of worship, please extend an invitation in the next couple of weeks!

Wednesday, February 23rd, we will begin a small-group study series entitled "Foundations." This series will be for the first 15 people who register and will be a little more in-depth study of some of the foundational issues of the faith, including:

The Bible; God; Jesus; The Holy Spirit; Creation; Salvation; Sanctification; Good and Evil; The Afterlife; The Church; and The Second Coming. The series will start on February 23rd and continue until we are finished, which could range between 11 and 22 sessions, depending on discussion. Let me know if you have questions or want to sign up.

On Sunday, February 13th, we will begin the series "Love at Last Sight," which is the follow-up to the series we did last fall, "One Month to Live." Included in this emphasis will be small-group study sessions, and the series stresses the importance of relationships. This series will take us through Lent and lead us into Holy Week and Easter!

We have a lot to look forward to and I hope to...

See You Sunday!

Blessings and Peace,

Ramon

A NOTE FROM MARY

Far dearer than all that the world can impart was the message that came to my heart; How that Jesus alone for my sin did atone,
And Calvary covers it all.

The stripes that He bore and the thorns that He wore told His mercy and love evermore; And my heart bowed in shame as I called on His name,
And Calvary covers it all.

How matchless the grace, when I looked on the face of this Jesus, my crucified Lord; My redemption complete I then found at His feet,
And Calvary covers it all.

How blessed the thought, that my soul, by Him bought, Shall be His in the glory on high; Where with gladness and song I'll be one of the throng;
And Calvary covers it all.

Calvary covers it all, my past with its sin and stain;
My guilt and despair Jesus took on Him there,
And Calvary covers it all.

Hey, it's time for the Super Bowl and we are getting together to watch it! We had so much fun last year, that we decided to do it again. The night will be full of a few surprises!!! Being at a youth home offers us a great place to do some pretty cool things during the game including our world famous dessert contest! It is going to be a great night to watch the game and hang out with friends!!

Job's Mother-in-law

A little over a year ago our good friend, Sandy Mills, went to be with the Lord. Sandy was a writer, poet, philosopher, teacher, singer, and a saint.

Just recently we discovered a supply of two of his publications which we would like to share with you. "Job's Mother-in-law" is an autobiography of a "modern-day" Job whose patience and in some cases his faith, was tested by his mother-in-law. The book provides some guidelines for others who may find themselves in a situation of caring for an elderly mother or father. The second booklet, "Papa's Poems," is a compilation of inspiring and entertaining poems written by Sandy's father, Arthur Mills.

These books are available in the church office. If you would like to make a donation in appreciation and in his memory, please make your check out to Janet Mills.
