From Your Pastor...

Sunday morning we gained a better understanding of Jesus' teaching about loving God with all that we are, and loving others as we love ourselves. Sunday afternoon we had a chance to put it into practice! I must say that I was very excited to see the large number of visitors we had for our annual Family Fall Festival, but I was even more encouraged to see many of you actively engaging our visitors in conversations! I had one couple (who were our guests) tell me that this was the friendliest church they had ever "been around." It is such a blessing to see and hear God's people opening their arms to the people of our community when the community shows up at our church. Obviously the next step is not to wait for them to come to us, but to go into the community and seek them out... The "Lost Parables" of Luke 15 deal with this very subject and would be a good "brush-up reading" for us. Blessings on you as you discover how God wants to use you to glorify Him this week!

This Sunday we will celebrate All Saints' Day. Technically, All Saints' Day is November 1st, but we choose to remember the Saints who have gone before us on the Sunday or Wednesday closest to November 1st. I hope you will be with us as we remember those who have played a significant role in the life of our church! We are blessed to still have so many members who were the founding generation of our church, and many of the members who we have said "Good-bye" to this year were here in the first years of College Park. Your presence this Sunday would be a valuable gift to their families!

Blessings and Peace,

Ramon

A NOTE FROM MARY

The Prodigal

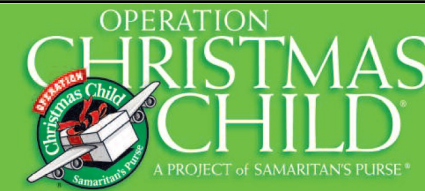

His father saw him-there were eyes of mercy;
 He ran to meet him-there were legs of mercy;
 He put his arms round his neck-there were arms of mercy;
 He kissed him-there were kisses of mercy;
 He said to him-there were words of mercy;
 Bring here the best robe-there were deeds of mercy;

Wonders of mercy-all mercy!
 Oh, what a God of mercy he is!

-Matthew Henry
