From Your Pastor...

As is always the case, I was so pleased with our youth and their leaders as we worshipped together last Sunday! Youth Sunday here at College Park has always been so special because our young people know what it means to accept the role of leading in worship. Like Jeff, I am so grateful to be a part of a church family that values the leadership of our youth. The pattern that College Park has of trusting our teenagers to lead us goes back many years, and we continue to see fruit come from those experiences as the teenagers from years past are now stepping into key leadership positions within the church. We are truly blessed to be a part of a congregation like College Park, and I pray that you will spend some time in prayer this week praying for our teenagers, parents, and youth leaders.

Sunday, May 5th is the annual service we commonly refer to as “Music Day” (In Praise of God is the real “title”). Please pray for our choirs and leadership as they prepare for this day of worship and give thanks to God for the gift of music. Mary and I had an opportunity to facilitate a discussion several weeks ago with all of the chaplains from the Baptist Retirement Homes of NC, based on the topic of Music and Aging Adults. One of the things we all recognized was the impact of music on our memory. How many times have you had trouble remembering what you were supposed to buy at the grocery store, but a song came on the radio and it “took you back?” Not only did it bring back memories of past events, but you could also remember every word of the song! Music is a very special gift from God, and a well placed song can impact our thoughts and our spirit! These facts are obvious to most of us; but if you are doubtful, just come May 5th, and your doubts will be erased as we worship around the theme of praising God with the songs we sing/hear!

Have a great week, and remember to invite/bring someone to church with you this week!

Blessings & Peace,

Ramon

A NOTE FROM MARY

My future hangs on this: You make preciousness from dust,
 Please don't stop creating me.
 Your blood offers the chance to rewind to innocence; Reborn, perfect as a child.
 Oh, Your cross, it changes everything,
 there my world begins again with You.
 Oh, Your cross, it's where my hope restarts, a second chance is Heaven's heart.
 When sin and ugliness collide with redemption's kiss,
 Beauty awakens by romance.
 Always, inside this mess, I have found forgiveness, Mercy, as infinite as You.
 Countless second chances we've been given at the cross,
 Countless second chances we've been given at the cross.
 Fragments of brokenness salvaged by the art of grace,
 You craft life from our mistakes.
 Black skies of my regrets outshone by this kindness;
 New life dawns over my soul.
 Oh, Your cross, it changes everything,
 There my world begins again with You.
 Oh, Your cross, it's where my hope restarts, a second chance is Heaven's heart.

We're Feeding Hungry Children!

This school year a new ministry project at College Park was begun to help fight childhood hunger in our city. A national study conducted in 2010 revealed that the greater Winston Salem area (which includes some surrounding counties) had the highest incidence of childhood hunger in the country! It is an unbelievable statistic.

In order to combat childhood hunger in our area, the WMU now sponsors a backpack program that provides backpacks filled with nutritious, kid-friendly foods to children on the weekends. Many children rely on school breakfast and lunch for the majority of their sustenance during the week and don't have access to much food on the weekend. This program is designed to help bridge that gap.

In October, we began providing backpacks to 9 children at Vienna Elementary. Due to generous donations of both food and money, we are getting ready to expand the program and provide backpacks for 15 children at Old Richmond. The feedback that has been received from the teachers and families of these children has been tremendous, and we are so grateful to know that we are helping to make a difference in the lives of these children.

We have partnered with Second Harvest Food Bank and are able to buy food for these children through the food bank at a great value. The cost of providing a backpack of food to a child each week is approximately $5. You could sponsor a child for $20/month, or a child could be sponsored for the remainder of the school year for only $45. All donations may be made to the church office and designated for the backpack program.

If you have any questions about this program or are interested in becoming involved, please contact Lori Cogdill.
