From Your Pastor...

Summer is upon us! We know summer has arrived when the children leave for Children's Camp at Camp Kanuga in Hendersonville over Memorial Day weekend! From there, things just speed up until we are having Day Camps at the church, special Wednesday night programs, our summer mission project...and the list goes on. All of these activities present us with opportunities to invite new people to College Park to enjoy the fellowship and support here! As I mentioned Sunday, College Park has always been a very welcoming place. People who come here feel welcome and they often comment on that to me and to many of you as well. The next step for us is to not only be a welcoming place, but also an inviting place! We have a responsibility to meet people where they are in the community and minister to them there, but also I believe we should invite them to part of a larger family that will be there to support and encourage them in the good and challenging times of life! I know that College Park is the kind of place that people are looking for, but they just don't know it exists here on the corner of Polo and Ransom. Our job is to make them aware, invited, and welcomed! That could be our theme for the Summer: Aware, Invited, Welcome!

May we be faithful!

Blessings & Peace,

Ramon

A NOTE FROM MARY

God is a master Artist. And there are aspects of your life and character-good, quality things-He wants others to notice. So without using blatant tricks or obvious gimmicks, God brings the cool, dark contrast of suffering into your life. That contrast, laid up against the golden character of Christ within you, will draw attention...to him. Light against darkness. Beauty against affliction. Joy against sorrow. A sweet patient spirit against pain and disappointment-major contrasts that have a way of attracting notice. You are the canvas on which He paints glorious truths, sharing beauty, and inspiring others.

So that people might see Him. -Joni Eareckson Tada

My Savior is the Lord and King, He has control of everything.

He loves me and He bids me sing, He gives His song to me.

He calms my heart and dries my tears, He gives me strength to face my fears,

He sends His grace through all my years, He gives His song to me.

My Savior, Jesus, I'll adore, My weary soul He will restore,

I'll praise His name forevermore, He'll give His song to me.

Jesus is the song of life. Jesus is the song of joy,

Jesus is the song of love; Jesus gives His song to me.

-David Danner

But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us. We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed. We always carry in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may be revealed in our body. II Corinthians 4:7-10

CHRISTA'S

CORNER

On June 19, 11:30 am, the College Parkers welcome Dr. Wiley Doby as our guest. Wiley brings us an update regarding the Baptist Children's Home in Thomasville, where he serves on staff. Bring a dish and join us!

If you would like a CD recorded by Marcia Lantz Jordan, our guest for the last College Parkers' meeting, please contact Christa.

The Home Ministry Team will meet Wednesday, June 25, 5:15 p.m. in the Coffee Room. We appreciate these who visit our members who are limited and cannot attend church regularly. If you know someone who needs to be on this list or if you would like to serve in this way, please contact Alice Wilson or Christa Warise.

If you are interested in the trip to the Flatrock Playhouse on July 24th to see Miss Saigon, please contact Anita Hatchett.

Contact June Crabbe if you would like more information about the trip to Caswell on August 18-22, when a special week for seniors is planned.

May God bless us as we minister, worship and fellowship together this summer!

Summer Wednesday Nights

Begin June 18

We will begin our summer schedule for Wednesday nights on June 18. We want to invite you to join us at 6:00 by "bringing your own" bag supper for your family. Bible study will begin at 6:30. This will offer us the opportunity for fellowship in a casual environment as we eat together before studying God's word.

College Park Baptist Church is pleased to offer a preventive health event. Life Line Screening will host their affordable, non-invasive and painless health screenings on Tuesday, July 1, 2014. Five screenings will be offered that scan for potential health problems related to blocked arteries, abdominal aortic aneurysms, hardening of the arteries in the legs, atrial fibrillation and bone density. All five screenings take 60-90 minute to complete. To register for this event and receive a $10 discount off any package priced above $129, please call 1-888-653-6441 or visit www.lifelinescreening.com/community-partners.

Please make sure we don't forget the gym project as we move along. We experienced phenomenal giving in 2013, and we want to make sure we retire this debt as quickly as we can. Thank you for remembering the gym project in your giving.

“Jesus, draw me close. Apart from You I can do nothing. But if I live in You and You live in me, then I will bear much fruit. So fill me with faith that overflows into good works. Fill me with love that overflows into service to others. And fill me with hope that overflows into courage to do Your will.”
