From Your Pastor...

One of my favorite posters is one that boldly states: “Everything Happens for a Reason ...But Sometimes the Reason is that You are Stupid and Make Bad Choices!” Now, don’t be offended. Instead, chuckle with me and see the truth contained in that statement... we all have our moments, right? Well, that got me thinking about things we say that are more tradition than Scriptural. “God helps those who help themselves.” Again, this statement does not appear in Scripture, although I have heard preachers go to great lengths to tie Scripture to this saying. We actually have a lot of sayings like this that people attribute to Scripture that do not appear in Scripture, even though there may be some Scriptural basis for them. This summer, on Wednesday nights, we will be studying “Half-Truths & Other Tough Questions!” These studies will be a combination of video and discussion. They promise to be lively in discussion, because most people have an opinion about the topics/questions we will tackle together! Each Wednesday night beginning on June 22nd we will “bring our own sack supper” and have our prayer time before launching into our discussions. It should be a great time together, and the weekly topics (which we will advertise in advance) should be of interest to those who are not yet churched as well... So, invite your friends and neighbors to fellowship and learn with us on Wednesday nights this summer!

Blessings and Peace!
Ramon

A NOTE FROM MARY

When I walk through deep waters, I know that You will be with me.
When I'm standing in the fire, I will not be overcome.
Through the valley of the shadow, I will not fear.

In the midst of deep sorrow, I see Your light is breaking through.
The dark of night will not overtake me; I am pressing into You.
Lord, You fight my every battle; I will not fear.

I am not alone, I am not alone, You will go before me. You will never leave me.
You amaze me, redeem me, You call me as Your own.

You're my strength, You're my defender, You're my refuge in the storm.
Through these trials You've always been faithful;
You bring healing to my soul!

I am not alone, I am not alone, You will go before me. You will never leave me.
-Feldes, Jobe, et al.

God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble.
Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way
And the mountains fall into the heart of the sea,
Although its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging.
Selah

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
The holy place where the Most High dwells.
God is within her, she will not fall; God will help her at break of day...
Be still and know that I am God...
The Lord Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress
-Psalm 46:1-5, 10a, 11

Hosting Missionaries

The time for hosting a group of 35 Cooperative Baptist Fellowship missionaries is around the corner! On June 26-28, our church will provide the gathering place for these servants of God following the CBF Assembly in Greensboro.

June 26, Sunday School: Adult and Youth Sunday School Classes are invited to Smith Hall to hear amazing stories of God’s Work. Missionaries will share in the children’s SS classes.

Sunday Morning Worship: A time to celebrate and give thanks for the mission of serving God in our lives. Marc and Kim Wyatt, who have ties to College Park, will bring our message.

Sunday evening: We will share in a churchwide covered-dish dinner and enjoy a time of fellowship and fun with our visiting missionaries.

June 27-28: The CBF Field Personnel will meet at our church. Thanks to the WMU for all their help!
