From Your Pastor...

The summer is in full swing and it seems like the church building is busy every day of the week now. We have been blessed to have wonderful facilities to offer enrichment programs all through the summer, but we are also blessed to have the people to make these happen!

I am particularly grateful to all those who helped make our "Missionary Sunday" (for lack of a better term) happen this past Sunday! It was a wonderful time to hear how the same God we worship each Sunday is alive and well all around the globe, and is using His people to change lives! As I heard accounts of all sorts of supposedly insurmountable odds, I had to chuckle to myself and think "so people still believe that God doesn't do miracles any more?" It was truly a blessing to hear their stories, to share a meal with them Sunday evening, and to pray for their continued safety in ministry.

As I thought about their stories, I was reminded of an interview that I heard on the television show 60 Minutes several months ago. The interview was with a man who had been captured by a terrorist group in the Middle East. In the first day of his captivity, they threatened to kill him if he didn't admit to being a spy and tell them all they wanted to know. I will never forget his response: (laughter) "Do you really think you can threaten me with Heaven?!" (more laughter) The response so unnerved and confused his captors that they eventually released him unharmed. People, that is the promise of God...life eternal with Him for those who trust in His Son! Glory! Get the Word out!

Blessings and Peace!

A NOTE FROM MARY

A sort of recurring theme I have pondered lately has to do with the difficulties of life. Sometimes, most of the time, life is just not fair. In fact, it is downright difficult, and no matter how hard I might try, I cannot control it or explain the moments when life spins out of control. One thing I am reminded of, though, is that I am in control of how I respond and that I can choose to trust and to seek God in the midst of whatever comes my way. I can choose to respond in faith, even when life makes no sense, because I can trust in my God when I can't trust in my circumstances.

Jesus, draw me ever nearer as I labor through the storm.
You have called me to this passage, and I'll follow though I'm worn.
Jesus, guide me through the tempest, keep my spirit staid and sure.
When the midnight meets the morning, let me love You even more.

May the treasures of the trial form within me as I go;
At the end of this long passage, let me leave them at Your throne.
May this journey bring a blessing, may I rise on wings of faith;
And at the end of my heart's testing, with Your likeness let me wake.

College Parkers welcomed music from "The Group" last month, involving some of our members. We appreciate their ministry to our community through the years. We will meet again September 15th, joined by The Sound Counsel, the great barbershop quartet all enjoyed last year.

If you are interested in serving on our Home Ministry Team, visiting our older saints, please let me or Alice Wilson know. Members, we will contact you about an upcoming meeting.

Blessings,

Christa Warise

Abundant thanks to all who joined in welcoming the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship missionaries to our church June 26-28th! They were deeply touched by your presence, support, abundant food and love. They said our church welcomed them beyond what they could expect or imagine and gave them encouragement for their lives as they return to the mission field. Marc and Kim Wyatt, who coordinated the plans with our team, want to be sure you know how thankful they are for the warm embrace of love and support for them all. We especially thank our WMU and Baptist Men, as this could not have happened without them! We were moved and inspired by this group of God's servants, who minister in some of the most difficult situations, with some of the people most removed from the love of Christ. The passion for their call to take the Gospel to internationals and to those usually overlooked touches our lives and reminds us that God calls us all to offer his grace and light to all without Christ. We won't forget the stories, the laughter, the reality of great need around us and across our continent. We have their contact information in the office if you would like to email or write to our friends serving on the mission field.
