College Park Baptist Church

It seems like we say every June: "I can't believe it's Summer already!"; but that's one sentence I doubt you will ever hear from the mouth of a school teacher! Perspective is everything, huh? And yet, here we are facing another Summer, and life has accelerated even more! Where does the time go? With that last question in mind, we will begin a new Summer series this year on Wednesday night, June 20th. The Case for Christ, based on the book by that title, is designed to give us more tools to continue to reach people for Christ. If time is moving as quickly as we say, then there is no time like the present to be sharing our faith with those around us who may need to hear the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ! I know the series will also encourage you as you grow in your faith! I am excited about the potential for growth in all of us this Summer!

Typically we talk a lot about Youth Camp during the Summer...and we will again this year...but we will also be talking about Adult Camp! Our 1st (annual?) Adult Camp will be October 21-25 at Ramada Plaza Nags Head Oceanfront! Information/Registration flyers are available now in the church office, Information Center desk, and will also be mailed soon! We currently have 25 rooms reserved, so register early so we can get more rooms quickly as needed. The camp is for adults (ages 18-108), and will be a great time of worship, fellowship, recreation (if you so choose), and relaxation! I can't wait!

Blessings and Peace!
Ramon

A NOTE FROM MARY

Music is made up of notes that are consonant and dissonant. Consonant notes are pleasant to the ear; they go together easily. They don't require much attention in listening. Dissonant notes are a bit more challenging to the ear; they clash. Sometimes they are almost offensive to the ear. While I don't want to oversimplify things, historically, in Western music, dissonance notes resolve. Notes move from consonance to dissonance and back. And it is that movement that makes beautiful music. Constant consonance, while easy on the ear, becomes boring. On the other hand, dissonance makes the listener pay attention. It requires more of us, but it also makes harmonies that are beautiful and interesting. Dissonance is often what propels music into key changes. It moves the music forward. Our ears wait and anticipate the harmonic resolution.

I think that the Church is meant to be the same. If we were all alike, it might be easy; however, sometimes easy is boring. Easy doesn't propel us forward. Instead, the Spirit weaves together people from differing backgrounds, people at differing life stages, people who are gifted differently, people who have different passions. Sometimes, we are consonant and comfortable. Sometimes our differences lead to dissonance, and we must carefully pay attention to each other. We are forced to listen more intently. Sometimes the dissonance propels us forward into change. And we work and move together toward renewed consonance.

It's interesting to note that differing cultures have differing opinions about what sounds are consonant and dissonant. And it is amazing when styles combine to make something new, particularly because we do it so infrequently. In coming days, as you hear things and encounter people who are challenging, listen carefully. It may be that, as we seek resolution, we are propelled forward into something new and beautiful.

STEWARDSHIP OF FINANCES

Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs) are more valuable than ever. With the doubling of the standard deduction and the suspension and limitation of many other deductions, far fewer taxpayers are likely to itemize. This means that far fewer will be able to take advantage of the deduction for charitable giving. With a QCD, you can use the standard deduction and get a tax break for your charitable contributions. Is a QCD right for you? You must be age 70 ½ and the funds from your IRA must go directly to a qualified charity. You are also limited to $100,000 annually. A bonus benefit is that your QCD can satisfy your required minimum distribution from the IRA. See Grace Hodge for details or your financial advisor.
