A SPECIAL THANK YOU!

Now that Dinner and a Show has come and gone, many are enjoying a well deserved rest. The youth, parents, and leaders tackled this year's show with great energy and passion. This was a difficult task especially since we did a similar show just twelve months ago. It is challenging enough to do it every other year as is our normal routine, but doing two within one calendar year takes an extraordinary commitment.

As always, the event preparations were excellent. We were especially thankful for significant donations by area organizations. Our team worked diligently to have most of the food donated in order to maximize the money raised. Thank you to Joyce Brothers Food and Nate Morgan for the chicken, Texas Road House for salad and rolls, Honey Baked Ham for the ham, and WR Vernon Produce for carrots and potatoes. Also, a big thank you to John and Dinah Reece for the incredible homemade desserts. Our people worked hard to prepare this food into our glorious meal. We are thankful for all of these efforts.

When we faced this decision to do it again so soon, it was our youth who led the charge. We have a faithful group of talented young people who are a joy to work with. They developed the show theme and the various acts, videos, and skits. They really wanted to do a show again this year and put the work in to make it happen. I am so thankful to serve along side this group of young people. God has gifted them with talents, patience, and hearts for service. They are excellent representatives of our church and faith.

Preparing for and pulling off an event of this magnitude takes a large team of committed people. The list of people to thank is incredibly long and I will never be able to properly convey my gratitude for all those who played a role. If you had anything to do with the Dinner and a Show—food service, decorations, ticket sales, cooking, cleaning, kitchen organization, sound, lights, childcare, support, entertainment, scripts, videoing, attending, etc.—our youth ministry is grateful for you playing your part so well. Please know that every effort you made will make an eternal difference here at College Park and on our mission trip next year!
