College Park Baptist Church

1701 Polo Road, Winston-Salem, NC 27106

The prefix “Re” has become a part of our message here at College Park. On our church logo, below where The Park flows through a graphic of a church morphing into a mountain, there is the phrase: “Where Re-Creation Begins.” That phrase was expanded when we began our Re:Creation service a little over nine years ago. The prefix has special meaning for us because we believe that in Christ all things are made new, and in his shed blood we have access to a new covenant. And with that privilege of new beginnings comes a responsibility to “Be the Body” of Christ to a lost and dying world.

Throughout this fall and winter we have been purposefully focused on being the body of Christ through our involvement in both state and local mission efforts. We want to continue to know and grow in our understanding of what it means to serve Christ daily, and through our Lenten journey we will explore this more.

Also, in April we will have Big Tent Re:Vival services on the front lawn, which will explore new ways to exercise our faith as the body! The dates are Sunday, April 7 through Wednesday, April 10, so mark these dates on your calendar! We will have supper each night at 5:30, and then the services will begin at 7:00pm. Plan to be here every night and bring guests with you! It will be a great time of Re:Vival!

The future is bright at College Park!
Blessings and Peace!

A NOTE FROM MARY

Currently, our Monday morning Bible study is discussing Taste and See by Margaret Feinberg, a book teaching about the many food references in the Bible. As we have studied (so far) about fish and fruit and bread, one of the recurring themes has been that of community. Whether it is manna in the desert, the feeding of the 5,000, a miraculous catch of fish, or the Last Supper, God feeds his people in community, and in community, they experience His love and provision. We experience His love in community as well. It's why we are commanded not to forsake gathering with other believers. We learn from each other, we are encouraged by one another, we celebrate and mourn together. But is community found in eating? Think about it. What happens when we meet around the table for a meal? We share our day, we share our stories, we laugh together, and relationships are deepened. It is significant that when Jesus said, "Do this in remembrance of me" it was around the table.

We joke a lot about Baptists eating, and we do like to eat. At College Park we have plenty of opportunities to combine food with fellowship: Wednesday evenings, College Parkers, Grub Club, to name a few. We often look at them as opportunities to fill our bellies, but how often do we think of them as opportunities to fill our souls? We have the chance to make our table time a time of fellowship that goes deeper than triviality. We can use that time to build relationships. It may even be a chance to build new relationships (I'll just drop that one there and let you ponder it...). We can choose to let our time at the table be one that builds up not just our individual bodies, but the body of Christ. I encourage you to take some time, whether it is church scheduled or on your own, to spend time with others at the table. Maybe invite someone new to share a meal with you. Take the time to allow God to nourish both body and soul.

College Park is anxious to help our friends and neighbors down east. We periodically collect items to transport, and we have two coming opportunities for adults to go and serve.

On March 22 and 23, NC Baptists on Mission will offer training for anyone interested in Disaster Relief. It will be in Thomasville on Friday evening and the following Saturday. All ages and abilities are welcome to train. Services are needed in Mass Feeding, Mud Out, Child Care, Administration, Chain Saw, and many other categories. If you are interested, please go to baptistsonmission.org, then click Training. Click Disaster Relief, then choose the category that most interests you. We are in Region 5. You can register on that page.

On April 17 to 20, we are recruiting a team to assist with the rebuild. Exactly where we go will be determined by the size of the group and needs at the time. Barbie Kale is organizing the team and will provide more information as the time draws near.

God bless you as you consider these opportunities to give your time!
