College Park Baptist Church

1701 Polo Road, Winston-Salem, NC 27106

Re:Vival! Hopefully you were able to attend these services and experience personal revival as we met together and learned more about how we can serve our God. I want to thank again all those who served to make these services (and dinners) possible. Fortunately, there are so many involved that I dare not start naming names for fear of accidentally excluding someone; but you, and we, know who you are, and are so grateful!

Our guest preacher for the week, Randy Weeaks, made an observation that I wanted to share with you. He said: "Ramon, your people just truly enjoy coming together and being with each other, and worshipping together. I can assure you that is not the case in other churches that I know of..." While I take that as a compliment to us (and it was meant as such), I thought, "how sad that there are churches where the people do not enjoy one another's company!" And while his comment was meant to be complimentary, I am also aware that we need to be careful that we do not become exclusive in our approach to fellowship. If we are to be a lighthouse to our community, we need to actively work to love and encourage all people...accepting them where/as they are, and helping them to grow in their journey to be more like Christ. I think that is the balance that Jesus taught: Loving and accepting all people, but also actively encouraging all to grow to be more like Christ! As we minister in our respective circle of influence, may we do so with abundant grace!

A NOTE FROM MARY

Christ is risen, Christ is living, dry your tears, be unafraid!
 Death and darkness could not hold Him, not the tomb in which He lay.
 Do not look among the dead for One who lives forevermore;
 Tell the world that Christ is risen, make it known He goes before.

If the Lord had never risen, we'd have nothing to believe;
 But His promise can be trusted: "You will live, because I live."
 As we share the death of Adam, so in Christ we live again;
 Death has lost its sting and terror, Christ the Lord has come to reign.

Death has lost its old dominion, let the world rejoice and shout!
 Christ, the firstborn of the living, gives us life and leads us out.
 Let us thank our God, who causes hope to spring up from the ground.
 Christ is risen, Christ is giving life eternal, life profound.

-Nicholas Martinez; tr. Fred Kaan

Senior Adults & Family Recreation

Being a parent is one of the hardest and most rewarding challenges life has to offer. In November, I wrote an article about how my wife was going to be a surrogate mother and help another couple become parents. Today by the grace of God, we sit on the other side of that journey. During revival, Randy mentioned that people say all the time that God will never give you more than you can handle. He then explained how that is theologically inaccurate. God will never give you more than HE can handle so you have to rely on Him through the journey. The recovery process has begun and we are very thankful for your prayers and support through this journey. Please keep praying for Tori as well as the babies and the new parents.

In Christ,
Matt & Tori
