College Park Baptist Church

1701 Polo Road, Winston-Salem, NC 27106

October was an amazing month in the life of College Park! We celebrated our 70th Birthday, collected food, toys, hygiene items, and money for all of our mission projects, which will roll out this month (with the exception of the Toy Store in December). As usual, you stepped up and gave generously to all of these projects, and I know many will continue to give as we get closer to the project dates. We also selected our Ones as part of our “Who’s Your One?” emphasis. Remember, praying for, and ministering to your One doesn’t stop at the end of the 30 days! Stay faithful and trust that God is going to give you more and more opportunities!

As is obvious by the month of October we have enjoyed, we have SO much to be thankful for...more than we even realize!!

To help us remember this, we will spend the month of November focusing on what it means to be thankful...why we should be...and how we demonstrate that. At the end of the month, we will take up a Harvest Offering that will be a tangible way to demonstrate our thankful hearts. More about this as we get a little closer...

Also notice in our worship box below that November 3rd is All Saints Sunday this year. This Sunday is an opportunity for us to remember all the saints who have left our church this past year for the church eternal. Please remember the families of these Saints in your prayers.

Blessings and Peace!
Ramon

A NOTE FROM MARY

I have been moved this week as I have thought about the way God works. Jamie and I spent the first part of last week communing with God, each other, and other law enforcement officers, listening to testimonies and hearing speaker after speaker talk about finding and reaching out to God in the midst of the storms of life. I left refreshed but thinking, "I wished they had talked a little about ____." In other words, I was pretty sure that I knew what my husband needed to hear. Little did I know that 24 hours later, we would be thrown into one of those storms, and that Jamie, especially would need those words we had been given. And I was reminded once again that the God of the universe, Creator of all things lives beyond the confines of time. He knows what we need before we do. He knows our tomorrow, and He is aware of our needs before they happen or we bring them to Him. In fact, Matthew 6 says God knows what we need before we ask Him. Does that mean He knows before they happen? I don't know that Matthew is saying that implicitly, but I can say that over and over again in my own life, I have experienced it. And I believe in God-moments, not coincidence.
