FROM ONE MINISTER TO ANOTHER . . .

Christmas came and went so quickly! Here we are at the beginning of a new year which comes complete with a brand new set of challenges and opportunities.

On this Sunday, the first Sunday of the new year, our church will share in a very special service which will include communion and the ordination and installation of our newest deacons. That service will provide for you an opportunity to make a fresh commitment to the Lord as you enter 2003.

The following Sunday, January 12, will be my last Sunday with you. How we will miss you! You have truly blessed our lives. You will always hold a very special place in our hearts!

I believe the Lord has some great things in store for College Park Baptist Church and know you will want to be a part of them. Let us continue to be in prayer for our Pastor Search Committee as they carry out their most important mission. How important it is that we all be sensitive to the leadership of the Lord and not surge on ahead of God's perfect will. I shall always cherish these months which I have shared with you. God bless you!

RAMON'S UPDATES

It's always exciting to look ahead at a New Year!! The new beginning reminds us that God brings opportunities to us everyday to serve Him and share his love. Please join me in looking for these opportunities as you enter 2003!

LOOKING AHEAD...

DATES OF INTEREST

January 12	Youth Joint Worship @ United Baptist
January 18-20	Youth Jr/Sr Leadership Training Retreat
January 26	Super Bowl Outreach Party @ Northwest Baptist
February 14	Sunday School Banquet
May 23-25	Children's Camp @ Camp Wayfarer
July 13-18	Youth Summer Camp @ Garden City

Dear Friends,

Thank you for a wonderful remembrance of Foy's 90th birthday. How you have lovingly cared for us through the years—even to this very day! It was good to see so many of you! Some of your children came—and even the grandchildren. What a blessing!

Everything was lovely. The brunch and decorations were carefully planned and carried out so beautifully.

Paul wrote these words to those he loved and were dear to him in the Lord: "I thank my God every time I remember you."

Foy and I can identify with Paul's words, for our hearts feel the same toward you. What we share together in the Lord is so rich in depth and meaning. We will be eternally grateful to God for pouring himself out through you. Thank you so much for who you are in the Lord and what you mean in our lives.

Lovingly in Christ,
Foy and Ethel Martin

Jeff's Notes

Christmas is behind us, but what wonderful memories remain of the Advent season! My family and I would like to say "thank you" for the many expressions of love extended to us during the Christmas season and throughout the year. We are truly blessed to be part of the College Park Baptist family. Our prayer is for each of you to enjoy God's richest blessings in 2003.

As we look forward to 2003, there are some dates that choir members need to note. Ainesis and Channels will resume rehearsals on January 12. Grace Notes will resume rehearsals on January 14. Children's Choirs will resume rehearsals on January 15. Sanctuary Bells will resume rehearsals on January 16. I look forward to an exciting year!

2003 SANCTUARY FLOWERS

We are deeply appreciative to those who placed memorial and honorary flowers in the sanctuary during 2002. They were a beautiful testimony to the glory of God and a blessing for all to enjoy. Each year we begin with a new flower calendar. If you would like to place special occasion, honorary or memorial flowers in the sanctuary in 2003, please call the church office. The following dates are available in the first quarter:

January 12	February 16	March 2	March 9
March 16	March 23	March 30
