From Your Pastor...

Sunday's worship service was very meaningful to me as we heard how God has been working through the lives of Ron, Jason, and Karen, preparing them for this time when they are allowing God to use them in a special place of service. As I listened to them, I was also looking through our congregation and thinking, "what a wonderful congregation." This is truly an exceptionally talented group of saints, gathered for the purpose of knowing God and making Him known. We do this in a number of ways including worship, evangelism, missions, discipleship, Bible study, etc. All these things we do ultimately reflect the God we serve to those who observe our lives. My prayer is that we will be worthy vessels through which Christ can shine! This Sunday, we will look at how to get a fresh start. Many people express the desire to begin again, and if ever there was a good Bible story to illustrate this, it was the life of Moses! We will be reading several passages from Exodus, so bring your Bibles, and maybe even a friend!

Sunday night we will continue our study of I & II Timothy, and will be studying Paul's instructions to the young pastor Timothy regarding the nature of The Church. You are invited to join with us for this study at 6:00pm in the sanctuary.

I look forward to seeing you Sunday!

THE STUDENT ZONE

I must admit I have been overwhelmed with the many gracious and thoughtful words of welcome Jennifer and I have received over the last several weeks. I have been blessed to work with College Park before coming on staff. Your reputation for warmth and generosity has often been what people have mentioned first when talking about CPBC. I have found that the depth of your generosity is more than I could have expected. Your warmth and love have been overwhelming. Thank you!

A scripture comes to mind which I believe typifies our church. Hebrews 10:23-25 states,

<sup>23</sup>Let us hold unwaveringly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. <sup>24</sup>And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. <sup>25</sup>Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another--and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

This is a beautiful passage which speaks to the heart of what we should be doing as a body of believers. It is my prayer that we will find the strength and desire to follow God through this passage each new day.

*A thought for the walk,

Jeff's Notes

*Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord, hear my voice.
Let your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.
If you, O Lord, kept a record of sins, who could stand?
But with you there is forgiveness, you are feared.
I wait for the Lord, and in his word I put my hope.
My soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen for the morn.
(Psalm 130 adapt.)*

Coming to church on Sunday morning usually means busily trying to put ourselves and our family members into the best shape we can and for a few hours putting the daily strains of life on hold. This is all a part of desiring to offer God (and our church family) our very best. We need to be careful, though, that we don't ignore those things in our life that separate us from God - the very things we should allow the Holy Spirit to deal with in worship. In sharing his/her despair, the author of this psalm is giving us words to offer our yearning to God. As we worship together on Sunday, we will acknowledge God as the giver of second (and third and...) chances. A God that offers hope even in those moments of deepest despair. I look forward to sharing this time with you. Thanks be to God.

Ainosis Reminders: Deposits are due immediately for our Feb. 20-22 retreat to Blowing Rock and our March 17-21 trip to Atlanta. We will not have our regular rehearsal this Sunday.

Inclement Weather Policy

Sunday morning services will be cancelled in extreme situations. The Pastor will consult with the Chairman of the Deacons and/or Chairman of the Properties Committee, if possible, in making a decision. An announcement will be made on local television stations and WSJS radio. Even when services are held in inclement weather, each person should use his/her own discretion about trying to get to church.

Cancellation of Sunday evening services will be announced on Sunday morning and/or on local television stations and WSJS radio.

Wednesday evening services and activities will be cancelled if school is closed because of snow or ice.

Basketball Schedule - January 17
