From Your Pastor...

One of the things we take for granted is the warm fellowship that we enjoy when we gather for Bible Study and Worship! Missing a Sunday is bad enough, but when we miss a Sunday and the following Wednesday night...well, it's enough to send us into withdrawal! It is good for us to be together as a church. Much of our strength is properly expressed within the relationships we enjoy as part of the body of Christ; so when we are not together, we miss that sense of common bond which has always characterized the Christian church. Maybe there's an important lesson here: don't take the assembling of ourselves together for granted! It is a privilege...a privilege that we should guard, and make a priority in our lives and the lives of our family. I hope that we will see you when we are able to assemble again!

This Sunday we will try once again to look at what it means to have Mega-Faith.

I look forward to seeing you Sunday for Bible Study and Worship!

Ramon Smith

THE STUDENT ZONE

Are you ready for some football? After all this snow and ice, I am ready for anything outside of my house! I am sure that you are ready to do something as well, and the Super Bowl party will be just the thing this weekend. Remember that we will be getting together at the normal time for snack supper (5:30), and then enjoy the Super Bowl.

You are invited to bring a dessert for the "Super Bowl Dessert Contest." You can enter your dessert into one of two categories - Best Tasting or Most Creative. Bring the desserts on Sunday afternoon to the youth room, and we will enjoy the game together. Some lucky adults will "test" and "judge" all the desserts. The winner in each category will receive a gift card to Best Buy! It's going to be great!

So, clean the snow off your driveway and make plans to be at this year's Youth Super Bowl Party! See you Sunday!

Jeff's Notes

I had the opportunity this past Friday evening, along with our choir of Deacons, to represent College Park in attending the opening service of the NC Baptist Forum held at FBC, Greensboro. This was an organized gathering of moderate NC Baptists concerned about the trends that have developed in our state convention. The group met, not for the promotion of some alternate agenda, but to find support among each other in our concerns and to seek God's guidance as this entire group, as well as individual churches, discern direction for the future. I was inspired through the experience in two ways: first, through the genuine sense of worship that prevailed during most of this opening session; and, second, in that this group of moderate Baptists are willing to corporately say "we don't know..." where we should head, but we are certain that God will direct us. This is the essence of faith. This is the scriptural model set for us (I Cor. 13:9). I trust College Park will be a faithful part of this process.
