From Your Pastor...

It seems like I'm saying this every week, but we did have a wonderful worship experience again last Sunday, and I want to thank you for your attendance and participation! A special thank you again for Matt's willingness to share from God's Word a key principle for Christian growth...being willing to step out into the waters and trust the leadership of God! Jeff Allen has done a fine job of articulating the value of our Family Ministry Intern positions, so I will not be redundant. Once again to Ward and Matt, "Thank You" for investing in our youth and children this summer! To Jeff Allen, I would say another "Thank You" for your mature and insightful leadership of these two young men.

This Sunday is another very special day, as we celebrate our "Saints Among Us." I am grateful to Jeff Parker for coordinating this wonderful day of worship and fellowship. I know you will want to be here to renew acquaintances and extend a greeting to many of our homebound members who have difficulty being with us as often as they would like. I look forward to this special day in the life of our church!

Bring a friend to Sunday School, and stay for worship!

Ramon

In Touch...

Time to Promote...

School has returned!!!! Teachers and students of all ages will be experiencing lots of changes in the coming weeks. Whether it is a new grade, a new school, or a new class - all of our teachers and students need our prayers as they face the excitement of a new school year.

It is also a new year for our Sunday School! With this change, comes the same excitement for a new classroom and new lessons to be learned about God and our Christian faith. All children, youth, and college students will move to their new classes this Sunday. We encourage parents to make sure they know where their children are going for their new class. If there are any questions, please do not hesitate to call. I look forward to a great new year!

A Fitting Thank-you!

This past Sunday was a great way to end our summer as we said thank you to Ward and Matt. Their leadership has helped make this an outstanding summer. I want to thank each church member who made these internships possible. Our church continually strives to grow spiritually and numerically - these intern positions help to expand our impact and ministry. Moreover, these positions offer the opportunity to help young people develop their own sense of calling. It is a valuable investment that our church has decided to make, and I think it will prove eternally significant. Thank you for making these intern positions such an important part of our church's ministry!

Jeff's Notes

This Sunday is our Saints Among Us day. We will be recognizing all of our homebound members and be fortunate to have many of them with us for worship. We will also host a luncheon in their honor immediately following the service. I hope each of you will be here for the service and will make it a priority to speak to those homebound members who are here. In addition, I hope this special emphasis will renew our commitment to stay in touch with and minister to everyone in our church family.

Next Thursday, August 19, is our monthly College Parkers meeting. This month we will welcome The Sparklings (Lisa Jo, Kassie, Maggie and Charlotte) as our special musical guests. You won't want to miss this special concert.

Because of some scheduling problems, we have postponed FANFARE until early September. We will still have a Sunday Night at the Park on August 29, but it will not be our music kick-off. We will wait to resume our weekly rehearsals for all our choirs (Cherub Choir, Sing for God, Psalm 8:2, Ainesis, Channels, Sanctuary Bells and Grace Notes) until after the September kick-off. For all our choir members, we will look forward to being back together, but until then, enjoy a little extra long break.

Jeff P.
