From Your Pastor...

This Sunday, September 19th, our Fall Discipleship series, "Isn't It Time We Talked?" begins. We will meet together in Smith Hall at 6:00pm for a primetime performance by our own College Park Players! This will be a fun introduction to our fall schedule of discussions related to families dealing with late life transitions. A complete schedule is available on the flyers at the Welcome Center ...come join us and bring a friend!

Jeff's Notes

What a special evening this past Sunday held for me and Jenny. I am so grateful for all the words of appreciation, support and encouragement. I thoroughly enjoyed reminiscing about many of our musical groups. The stories recounted brought to mind so many more. College Park is blessed with numerous gifted musicians of all ages. But even more important is that, almost without fail, the musicians at College Park are active in the entire life of the congregation. Each is gifted in many ways and chooses to share all those gifts. This makes the worship leadership by our choirs even more meaningful because they lead as "close members of the family" not some elite group that leads from a distance. I truly consider the seven plus years we have spent together as a blessed time in my life. The College Park family has helped mold me into who I am today and will continue to have an impact on my life (and the life of my family) as we move forward from here. Thank you for the special time Sunday evening and for the years together. Thanks be to God for all the blessings we have shared.
