From Your Pastor...

As Billy Graham's three-week Los Angeles evangelistic campaign neared its end, local crusade organizers wanted to extend the meetings. Billy was hesitant, and he asked God for a sign. The next morning, October 17, 1949, at 4:30, he was awakened by a phone call. It was cowboy entertainer, Stuart Hamblen, in tears. He drove to Billy's hotel and accepted Christ as his Savior. That was the sign Billy needed to extend the meetings. Stuart excitedly told the story of his conversion on his radio show, and the local newspapers picked up the story. Soon all Los Angeles was buzzing about the Billy Graham meetings. The resulting publicity launched a half-century of mass evangelism virtually unparalleled in Christendom.

Two questions:

- 1) Have we lost the excitement to tell others about what Jesus has done for us?
- 2) If so, then why?

This Sunday we will be discussing several passages from Paul's letters as he teaches the church that mature Christians imitate Christ in their thinking, talking and toiling. As we seek to imitate Christ, others will see the excitement of our faith, and we will experience those "signs" in our lives where we see God's leadership clearly!

Have a great week, and we'll...

See You Here Sunday!

In Touch

The Fall Festival is coming!

I have been talking with you during the past several weeks about the Fall Festival, a great event coming up on October 30. This event will have something for everyone! We want people of every age to come and enjoy this fun night together. Here is some information you might find helpful

Art Exhibit

We have several types of art exhibits that we would like to display during the festival. First, we are inviting all children to do some kind of artwork based on a fall-theme (just make sure it is on anything like a light-colored sheet of construction paper). Some of our children have been working on this during Sunday School. If your child is interested in doing a picture, please make sure the picture is completed and turned in to the office by Friday, October

29. Please put the child's name on the back of the artwork.

The other kind of artwork we are inviting people to enter is "apple" artwork. We would like for anyone who wishes to enter - youth, college students, couples, senior adults, families - to decorate an everyday apple in any way imaginable. Decorate those apples with a family member or a friend and turn them in to the office by Friday, October 29. Make sure to identify the artwork as your own.

Festival Activities

Artwork is just one part of the festival activities. There will be carnival games, inflatable games, food contests, food vendors, and a music concert to top off the evening. We want you to be a part of this great event, and we hope that you will invite someone to come with you. Stay tuned for even more details about the Fall Festival and make plans now to attend!
