From Your Pastor...

It was a joy to worship together this past Sunday, as our youth led us! It seems like every year we find ourselves reflecting on what a wonderful job they do as they demonstrate their growing maturity that is reflected in their worship leadership. I believe there is much that we can learn from them as they are learning from us as well. A special thanks to all who helped plan and implement this meaningful worship experience!

This Sunday we will celebrate the gift of music! Our choirs work very hard each week learning how to use their talents to glorify God and lead us in worship, and In Praise of Music is the service where we get to see most of these choirs together! Our Grace Notes led us a couple of weeks ago during our Wednesday Family Night, and it was wonderful to hear their entire program. This Sunday we will hear from most of the other choirs as we gather together for worship. Bring a friend, associate, neighbor, or someone you meet in the grocery store line (yes, someone did that last week!) and join us for worship!

How are you doing in your One-on-One commitment? Have you already forgotten the joy of Easter Sunday and the passion to share the good news of Jesus?! Ask God to lead you by His Holy Spirit to minister in His name!

We'll see you Sunday!

Ramon

I N TOUCH

What a Youth Sunday!

Words are inadequate for expressing how amazing worship was this past Sunday. I have heard from so many of you who received such a blessing from our youth being in leadership during Sunday morning worship. I must agree with every word! It was remarkable and stirring. I know that many of us will not soon forget this year's Youth Sunday service.

Many people worked diligently to make this year's Youth Sunday go so smoothly. I want to thank all of the Crosstraining leaders who helped the different teams perform their roles so well. A special thank you goes out to: Eye-Witness/Drama Team—Barbie Morgan, Debbi Patterson; Internet Team—Rick Matthews; Publicity Team—Marissa Morgan, Daniel Joyce, Beth Nelson; yoU-turn—Ramon Smith, Mitch Edmonds; Video Team—Steve Overby, Charlie Jones. Your efforts continue to pay off each week, and I am thankful for your sacrifice. A big thank you goes to David Shannon for training our ushers!

Youth, I am so proud of you! Every word you spoke, every note you played or sang, every hug you gave—it was right on the mark! You worked long and hard to put the service together as well as all of the work to get the different elements of the service in place. You led our service with Christ in your hearts and I am proud to walk with you!

Jeff

P.S. For those of you who liked my creative arrangement of the closing hymn on Sunday, I will be glad to teach a seminar on exactly how I did that! Thanks for playing along!

Mt. Outreach July 3 - 8, 2005

College Park's annual house-building mission is getting underway. We will build a house for Kenneth and Sandra Wolfe. The two children, Katrina and Kallen, are excited about getting a safe, dry place to live. The family currently lives in a small, rundown trailer. The trailer is so badly infested with cockroaches that we are telling the family not to move anything at all into their new home. That means that we will need to collect additional clothing and personal items for the family members. More details about the family will be coming soon. Our financial goal is $20,000. Please pray about your family's participation in this life-changing mission event.

Called Church Conference May 4, 2005

As announced in the April 20 business conference, we will have a Called Church Conference on Wednesday, May 4, to discuss and vote on the creation of a Music Intern for the summer of 2005.

Tuesday, May 3

Eat at one of the participating restaurants, and 10% of the proceeds will go to Crisis Control Ministry to help feed the hungry in our area!
