From Your Pastor...

Our Mission ...

*“A people gathered in Christ;
nurtured in His Spirit;
and sent in His name.”*

As a new school year begins for many of us, it allows us to pause and reflect on many aspects of education. It is important for us to realize that the golden years are gone...no longer does our society reinforce the values that Christian churches and families hold dear. No longer can our Christian school teachers openly express their faith in Jesus Christ while they have “a captive audience.” So what are we to do? Wail and gnash our teeth, and scream for the past to return? While certainly that is an option, it may not be the best option. Instead, we may want to consider committing a great amount of time and energy into preparing our students, teachers, and parents so they can be missionaries on the local campuses. If we are each to say, “Here am I, Lord, send me,” then why not our students and teachers? Why not our parents in the areas of PTA and Booster Clubs? The minds of the future are at stake, and we must take the challenge seriously! This Sunday we will have a service affirming these missionaries...I challenge you to pray and to come worship with us!

We also want to remember those students who have answered God’s call to pursue their education at college, both our students going away to school and the Wake students returning to Winston-Salem. We also want to pray for those who are continuing their educations in Divinity School/Seminary: Jim Hylton, Marissa Morgan, Barry Nelson, and Matt Wilson. Blessings on all of you!

This Sunday, August 28, will be the beginning of a great new Sunday School year. We are having some special events to mark the occasion! There are several things happening for everyone in our church. Here are the details...

Sunday School Open House

9:30 a.m., Smith Hall

All children, youth and their families are invited to come be a part of our Sunday School Celebration. The event starts at 9:30 a.m. Babies and toddlers should be taken straight to their regular rooms on the preschool hall (if you are unsure where these rooms are, guides will be on hand to help you get where you need to go). All other children, youth, and parents should come to Smith Hall for a time of food and activities. There will be a short program at 10:00 a.m. in Smith Hall. At 10:15 a.m., children and youth will go to their new Sunday School classes for a brief time with their teachers. Parents are invited to go with their children and their youth to meet the teachers and hear about what is happening this year.

Service of Affirmation

10:45 a.m., Sanctuary

After the Sunday School Celebration and Open House, everyone will go to the Sanctuary for our morning worship. This service will focus on celebrating God's presence and affirming all those who will be going to school this year—preschoolers, children, youth, college students, graduate students, teachers, administrators, volunteers, and parents. It is important that we recognize and understand the world in which our young people and their families live. As a church, we will spend time affirming them and recommitting our determination to support them through prayer and encouragement.

Prayer Partners for Youth and Children

At the end of the "Service of Affirmation," all adults in our church will be asked to prayerfully consider being a prayer partner for a youth or a child. As everyone leaves the Sanctuary, there will be envelopes on tables near Smith Hall. Those who choose to do so, will pick up one of these envelopes which contain basic information about every child and youth in our church. This child or youth will be their prayer partner for this school year. This is a great way to show support for the students and their families. I hope that all adults will consider being a part of this important ministry.

Don't forget to check the "Lost and Found" periodically if you are missing an item. We have a drawer that is full of eyeglasses, jewelry, umbrellas, gloves, etc.

I look forward to seeing all of you on Sunday for a great time together! It is wonderful to know we have a church committed to young people and families!

Interim Music Director

After Jeremy Cauble's excellent summer with the College Park adult choir, the Music Committee is pleased to announce the hiring of John Reese to take his place. John is retired from U.S. Air, but in addition to his "day job" he has been involved in working with choirs since his college days. His positions include stints as Director of Music at First Pentecostal Holiness Church and New Friendship Baptist Church here in Winston-Salem, as well as substitute work at Parkwood Baptist Church in Annandale, Virginia. He and his wife are members at Calvary Baptist, where they both enjoy singing in the choir. Welcome John!
