From Your Pastor...

Our Mission ...

*"A people gathered in Christ;
nurtured in His Spirit;
and sent in His name."*

On November 20, 1541, the great Reformer, John Calvin, at age 32, established a theocratic government at Geneva, leading to that city's central role in the growing Reformation movement. That was 460+ years ago and the church is still going through a Reformation, but in many ways has begun to slip back into the church model prior to the Reformation. I believe strongly in the priesthood of the believer, and with that freedom comes a responsibility to read God's Word and seek understanding through the power of the Holy Spirit. I believe that, as a Christian, I can approach the throne of grace with confidence, knowing that Christ intercedes on my behalf. One of the problems with the modern church is that we are not as devoted to these disciplines as we should be. If Reformation is going to happen today, we must return to God's Word and seek His will as we worship and work together. Reformation is essential if we are going to continue to discover new ways to tell the timeless story of Jesus Christ and His saving grace.

"We have so much to be thankful for!" I know that we say it often, but this time of year we can get caught up in the sprint to Christmas and skip over Thanksgiving. This year, let's make a covenant to be thankful...to teach our children, and neighbors, and co-workers to be thankful. Let's show our community, in tangible ways, that we are a thankful people

*"Whatever you do for one of the least of these brothers of mine,
you do for me."
Matthew 25:40*

Tradition and Thanksgiving go together like turkey and dressing. If we were to list all of the different traditions that have been experienced around Thanksgiving celebrations, the list would be varied and telling of our families and ourselves. Do you remember any of your favorites from childhood? How many of those traditions are alive in your family gatherings today?

Our traditions are great teaching tools about what we hold dear. From watching football games to enjoying conversation around the table, what we do with our families is crucial for the passing on of what we believe to be important. From the visit to grandma's house to participation in a Thanksgiving service, each tradition teaches about our values. As you enjoy a Thanksgiving meal or two this year, take the time to share the most valuable lesson of all - giving thanks to the giver of all good things. For it is God alone who has provided us with more than we could ever imagine and the tradition of thanking Him for his providence is the greatest tradition you could pass on around the Thanksgiving dinner table.

Jeff

¹¹Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, O LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all. ¹²Wealth and honor come from you; you are the ruler of all things. In your hands are strength and power to exalt and give strength to all. ¹³Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name.

Basketball season has begun! There are a couple of things you need to turn in now in order to be able to play. Please turn in your league fee ($50 for the first child and $10 for every remaining child in your family) and your permission form for the league. Thanks for getting all of this in on time. Also, it has been a fun couple of weeks as practice has started off well. If you still want to play but have not come to any practices, please feel free to come anyway. We would love to have you. Check out the schedule online or at the Welcome Center desk.

CHILDREN’S MINISTRY

Parent’s Night Out

Hey parents - get ready for a night out with the promise that your preschoolers and grade school children will have a great night as well! Our Christmas edition Parent’s Night Out is coming on December 3 from 5:00-9:00 PM. Plan to bring your children to a fun night of food, games, and even some craft-making.

December 3

YOUTH MINISTRY

Fall Retreat at Ridgecrest

It is almost time for our annual trip to Ridgecrest. Are you getting excited as we get ready for an “Authentic Encounter?” It is going to be a great weekend. Plan to arrive at church at 3:30 PM on Friday to leave for Ridgecrest, and then we will return at 4:00 PM on Sunday. Some schools do not get out until 3:30, but we just need to make sure that we get to church as soon as we can so that we can get on the road. Call Jeff if you have any questions.

COLLEGE MINISTRY

Exam Pack Run Coming Soon!

The new chill in the air signals the coming doom, or exams, whichever word seems more appropriate. CPBC wants to make things a little easier by providing all of our college students a small exam pack of goodies. To do this, there are two things which are needed. 1) If you are a college student, or know contact information for any of our college students, please email Jeff with the information. Our directory is up-to-date, but we want to make sure nothing slips by. 2) We need people to bring us goodies, homemade or otherwise, to the Adult I kitchen by Sunday, December 3. These items will help make up the exam packs. Thanks for your help with this important ministry to our college students.

Week of December 4

THANKSGIVING EVE SERVICE

Make plans now to participate in our Thanksgiving activities. Our Family Night Supper will be held at the usual time, 5:30 - 6:30 p.m. There will be no mission groups or children’s choirs that evening. Following the meal, we will join together in the Sanctuary at 7:00 p.m. for an offering of gratitude to our heavenly Father for His wonderful blessings and constant faithfulness.
