THE CHURCH GATHERS FOR WORSHIP

August 25, 2013 11:00 a.m.

We believe that worship is essential to our faith. When we gather, we gather in the midst of God. His Spirit inspires us and directs our fellowship with each other and with Him. May you find the joy of God's love and grace as we share this time together.
We would also ask that in consideration of other worshippers, please turn off or switch to silent mode, all paging and cellular devices.
Hearing Assistance devices are available from any usher.

ANTHEM God of Our Life Butler

God of our life through the years we trust in You.
Through all our hopes and all our fears we feel your spirit new.
With each new day when morning lifts the veil,
We own your mercies, Lord, which never fail.
You are God of our past, God of our future, God of the ages and of each hour,
God of our sorrow and our strife, the God of our gladness, God of our life.
God of the past our times are in your hand, with us abide, Lord, be our guide to Hope's true promised land.
Trusting in your word the darkness shines as light,
and faith's full vision changes into slight.
God, You know our future. We follow your lead.
When we are wrong, Lord, leave us not alone; our refuge be, our refuge be.

COVENANT

Leader: By our faith in Jesus Christ, we are claimed as God's own and brought into a new community. Today we gather to celebrate the nurturing and teaching aspects of our faith community.

Leader: Parents, God has given you the privilege of primary care for your children. One of your tasks is to maintain a personal relationship with Christ so that your child may see the eternal value of knowing and serving God. Your role is to exhibit this faith relationship within the setting of a Christian community. As your child continues the journey of faith, do you promise to partner with educators and other church leaders through active support and involvement in specific ministry opportunities while also modeling a Christian lifestyle at home?

Parents: Yes!

Leader: Educators, you have accepted the privilege of nurturing children, youth, and adults in our community to increase their understanding of God's creation, boundless love, acceptance, and forgiveness through your gift of teaching. Do you commit to the task of helping your students grow in knowledge and confidence of their place in God's creation?

Educators: Yes!

Leader: Students, you are a valuable part of God's creation and our faith community. This body has committed to helping you learn what it means to know Christ and serve Him. Your attitude and willingness to grow are keys to your faith development. Do you promise to come ready to learn, grow in your faith, serve God daily, and encourage others to do the same?

Children, Youth and Adult Learners: Yes!

Leader: At each parent-child dedication, we have joined together in surrounding children and their parents in a covenant for faith development. Do you promise to continue your support and involvement, modeling a Christian lifestyle of prayer, encouragement, service, and faith?

All: Yes!

Litany of Dedication

Leader: “Unless the Lord builds the house,

People: Those who build it labor in vain” (Psalm 127:1)

Leader: To your glory and honor, O triune God, Creator, Son and Holy Spirit,

People: We dedicate and rededicate this building.

Leader: To the teaching of your Holy Word, to our growth in grace,

People: We dedicate this building

Leader: As a place where people are loved, as a place where children and adults share the Good News of Jesus Christ,

People: We dedicate this building

Leader: Where the citizens from the community may gather, where laughter and happiness may abound,

People: We dedicate this building.

Leader: As a place where young and old, the children of God, may increase in wisdom and favor with God and with all people, where service to others might be rendered in the name of the living Lord Jesus Christ, where generations to come might play, study, fellowship, and grow into mature citizenship on earth and in preparation for heaven,

People: We dedicate and rededicate this building and new addition.

Leader: With thanksgiving to God for the rich and ongoing history of our congregation, for the numerous saints of God who have given generously for this building program and for those saints of God who have sustained and continue to give for the mission of Christ Jesus through the ministry of this congregation

People: We give thanks, O God, for your beloved saints.

Leader: We do now, as the people of God, set aside this newly constructed and renovated ministry base and dedicate it to the glory and honor of Almighty God and to the service of his church, in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
