THE CHURCH GATHERS FOR WORSHIP

June 18, 2017

11:00 a.m.

We believe that worship is essential to our faith. When we gather, we gather in the midst of God. His Spirit inspires us and directs our fellowship with each other and with Him. May you find the joy of God's love and grace as we share this time together.

We would also ask that in consideration of other worshippers, please turn off or switch to silent mode, all paging and cellular devices.

Hearing Assistance devices are available from any usher.

MEDITATION Even If Mercy Me

*They say sometimes you win some, sometimes you lose some
And right now, right now I'm losing bad
I've stood on this stage night after night reminding the broken it'll be alright
But right now, oh right now I just can't
It's easy to sing when there's nothing to bring me down
But what will I say when I'm held to the flame like I am right now
I know You're able and I know You can
Save through the fire with Your mighty hand
But even if You don't, my hope is You alone
They say it only takes a little faith to move a mountain
Well good thing, a little faith is all I have, right now
But God, when You choose to leave mountains unmovable
Oh give me the strength to be able to sing It is well with my soul*

A COVENANT OF DEDICATION

Leader: We are here today to present these children to the church and to consecrate them to God. Who brings them for this holy purpose?

Parents: We, the parents, do.

Leader: What do we affirm about these children?

Parents: We affirm that each child is made in the image of God, and is a child of God by creation; that each is loved and will be included in the experiences of this congregation; and that children are God's gifts to us in whom we take delight.

Leader: As these infants grow into childhood, what will we tell them about their heritage?

People: We will tell them about God who created the world; about Abraham and Sarah, the founders of our faith; about Moses who led our ancestors out of bondage; about Ruth's example of faithfulness; and about the prophets who spoke courageously for God against the superficial values of their day. We will tell them about Jesus the Christ in whom salvation is offered; about the woman at the well who experienced God's healing grace; about the Apostles who grew beyond comfort and familiarity as they sought to follow Jesus; and about the worship and mission of the Church.

Leader: What will we hope for in these children?

People: We will look to the day when these children will gather with us at the Lord's Table, when they will declare faith in Jesus the Christ, confirm the heritage which we will pass along, and come as adults to choose full commitment to God's will and work.

Leader: Do you as the parents of these children assume your primary responsibility for keeping them in touch with such hopes and expectations?

Parents: Yes, we accept this responsibility.

Leader: And do you, the congregation, pledge to work toward creating a nurturing Christian environment for all our children?

People: Yes, we do, for they belong to us.

Leader: Then, may God be with us.

All: And help us! Amen.
