From Your Pastor...

Our Journey to the Cross is drawing to an end...or is it? Typically we think about the season of Lent ending with the celebration of Easter Sunday morning. While that is technically true, the ramifications of our Lenten journey should reach long after Easter. Actually, the commitments we make during Lent should be life-changing and endure for eternity. Do you remember the conversations we've had during Lent about "our heart" and how that is God's primary concern? Well, those conversations should be the beginning...not the end of our self-examinations. The same God who created us in His image also gave of Himself unconditionally and sacrificially...how can we not do the same?!

As Jesus entered Jerusalem on a donkey 2000+ years ago, He sought to teach those in attendance, as well as all of us, that the journey to the cross would require the heart of a servant! That will be reinforced in every service we have during the services of Holy Week. It is a message that the world is unfamiliar with, and perhaps even hostile to...yet it is at the heart of the gospel. The services this week will present you with a unique opportunity to be a bold witness, and invite neighbors, work associates, relatives, and friends to experience services of preparation and celebration which define the true meaning of Easter. I challenge you to take advantage of this opportunity!

Blessings and peace...

Come Worship with Us All Week!

A NOTE FROM MARY

*Before the throne of God above,
I have a strong and perfect plea,
a great High Priest whose name is Love,
who ever lives and pleads for me.
My name is graven on his hands,
My name is written on his heart.
I know that while in heaven He stands
no tongue can bid me thence, depart.*

*When Satan tempts me to despair and tells me of the guilt within,
Upward I look and see Him there who made an end of all my sin.
Because the sinless Savior died
my sinful soul is counted free.
For God the just is satisfied to look on Him and pardon me.
Behold Him there the risen Lamb,*

*my perfect spotless righteousness,
the great and changeable I AM
King of glory and of grace.
One in Himself I cannot die.
My soul is purchased by His blood,
my life is hid with Christ on high,
with Christ my Savior and my God!*

-Vickie Cook/Charitie Bancroft

We have an amazing God who made Himself nothing to die an agonizing death so that we could be in relationship with Him for eternity. It is easy sometimes to forget the price that God paid for us, to forget that grace is not something given without cost. In coming days, remember that your eternity has been paid for by nothing less than the blood of Christ.

Reminder: During the month of April we are celebrating our Sunday School teachers. Please take a few moments to show your appreciation to your teacher by writing a note, delivering some baked goods, buying lunch or some other way. We look forward to hearing how you honored those who honor Christ by teaching each week. Your Sunday School Council

“History Highlight”

College Park’s very first building was a simple frame structure. The construction was not quite completed when the first service was held there on June 12, 1949. Some of the materials that had been used at Crystal Lake were reused in the new building. The front doors opened into a small foyer, which led to an open worship area with a choir loft at the back of the building. Two side rooms, originally used for Sunday School classes, opened to the larger room. When the Sunday School membership outgrew the small building and expanded into neighboring houses, the original structure provided classrooms for the nursery and beginners’ departments.
