FROM ONE MINISTER TO ANOTHER . . .

This past week has reminded me, once again, of the great mission imperative which is so much a part of College Park Baptist Church. Last Sunday, I sat in on the breakfast meeting of Baptist Men and was so excited to hear plans for mission outreach, ministering to others in the name of Christ.

Wes Morgan brought us a challenge to be a part of missions to Haiti, both at Baptist Men and on Wednesday evening.

This Sunday marks the beginning of the Week of Prayer for North American Missions, which can be supported either through the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship or through the SBC North American Mission Board. We will focus on that emphasis next Wednesday evening. There are so many opportunities for personal involvement in Missions!

Sunday will be another special day for us. I invite you to review the account of the raising of Lazarus, as reported in John 11, in preparation for our worship experience. What an important event in the ministry of Jesus! And what an important message is there for us! I look forward to seeing you this Sunday, if not before.

RAMON'S UPDATES

This Easter, Reach

1. Think of ten friends/neighbors/work associates who need to hear the gospel.
2. Give them each a He Did This Just For You Special Edition New Testament or booklet, and write their names on the back of your prayer card.
3. Commit to pray for them daily, and encourage them to attend church (with you if possible) this Easter Sunday (if not before)!

Ten For Him Prayer Cards, He Did This Just For You Special Edition New Testaments, and He Did This Just For You booklets are available from the church office. Booklets are $1 each and New Testaments are $4 each (while they last). There is no charge for the Prayer Cards.

Jeff's Notes

I was reminded this past weekend of the wonderful community that we are blessed with at College Park—a community where our caring, commitment and comfort-levels cross generational lines. This weekend I enjoyed our youth as they rang very traditional bell music and “rocked” in concert at the state handbell festival. I also had the privilege of sharing in Sunday morning worship with each of you as we experienced God through the music of our adult handbells and choir and through the skit of some other of our youth. We are blessed with a genuine sense of community where we are nurtured in our discipleship. That only comes from a commitment to God and to each other. My prayer is that we as a “gathered people of God” never abandon our scriptural call to community.

Speas School Partnership Update

Beginning April 1, we have another opportunity to minister to the children of Speas School. There is a need for individuals to volunteer 1/2 hour a week for four weeks to tutor one-on-one with a Speas student in preparation for the end-of-grade testing. I have more information and the sign-up sheet in the office.
