FROM ONE MINISTER TO ANOTHER . . .

We enjoyed our Advent celebrations with you last year and are thankful that the Lord is allowing us to share yet another Advent with you! These will be special days as we celebrate the coming of the Savior. What a difference the coming of the Christ has made for all of us!

This coming Sunday will be the first Sunday of Advent. We will be lighting the first candle of the Advent Wreath and will focus in our message on that wonderful word, "Emmanuel." There is no more central understanding to the message of Advent than that basic affirmation, "God with us."

My prayer is that this will truly be a joyous season for us all and that we will not lose sight of the true meaning of the season, that wondrous truth that "the Word became flesh and dwelt among us" and that "in Him there is life." That is the central truth of the gospel which we celebrate at this season of Advent. I look forward to seeing you this Sunday, if not before.

Jim Baucom

RAMON'S UPDATES

We had a tremendous weekend at Ridgecrest! Our youth were exemplary in their behavior, and the worship and Bible study were very meaningful. Thank you for your prayers!

It seems like Thanksgiving falls a little later in the month this year, therefore Thanksgiving break backs up to the last week of classes before exams for our college students. This means that Exam Care Packs are due to go out! Once again I am asking for your help to make this reminder of our prayer support possible. We will be assembling these packs this coming Sunday (December 1st) and delivering them during the following week! You can bring items for these packs to the Adult One area kitchen this Sunday morning. Thanks, in advance, for helping make this ministry possible!

With the beginning of December also comes the beginning of our youth and children's basketball games! The season starts Saturday, December 7th, and all of our teams except the Sr. Youth Boys (who have a bye) will be in action that day. We have copies of their schedules that are available at the Information Center. Pick up a copy, and we'll see you at the games!
