From Your Pastor...

This Sunday we will conclude our three-week emphasis on stewardship as we examine the Stewardship of Treasures. Yes, we will talk about our money, but it is a much larger picture than that! As stewards, God has entrusted us with many things, including material possessions. As we said last Sunday, as stewards, we will be held accountable for what we do with these gifts. This Sunday we will look at an interesting parable and how it relates to this whole issue of Treasure Stewardship. Come and bring a guest...

As I promised last Sunday, we will offer a study course on Sunday evenings that will help you identify your gifts and how to apply these to the work of God's kingdom. This will begin Sunday, November 16, at 5:00pm, in the Equipping Center. Please sign-up in your Sunday School class or at the Welcome Center so we will know how to prepare materials.

Again this Sunday, as a part of our worship, you will be given the opportunity to bring your Stewardship Commitment cards forward during our Hymn of Response. As I wrote last week, stewardship is not "giving money to meet a budget." In its truest sense, stewardship is a response of our hearts, recognizing God as the source of everything that we have and everything that we are!

If you did not receive a card, or need another one, they are available in the church office or at the Welcome Center.

'See you Sunday!
Ramon Smith
