From Your Pastor...

I understand that I missed a wonderful worship service this past Sunday! Thanks again to our Children's Ministry Intern, Ward Page, for his leadership in that service. Both Ward and Matt continue to do a fantastic work with our children and youth this summer! (Thanks to Rick Matthews for getting our services on the website, so I was able to hear this past Sunday's service!) We have heard from Ward and within a couple of weeks we will hear from Matt...I know you will look forward to this time also.

My family and I had a restful and relaxing vacation and saw parts of this country we had never been able to experience. God's creation is truly magnificent, and seeing two things in particular helped remind us of the awesome nature of the creation. The first was a destructive shelf cloud that rolled into Evansville, IN on Wednesday evening and the second was the "hidden" majesty of the Marengo Caves. Both reflect important attributes of the Creator—the incredible power of the natural forces of the universe, and the elegant beauty "below the surface" that we have to seek out.

It has been a short summer, and with all of the activity, it has been good to have Sunday evenings free to visit and spend some quality family time! Our Sunday Night @ the Parks were well attended, and we will have another in August in conjunction with FANFARE.

Bring a friend with you and we'll see you this Sunday!

Ramon

Jeff's Notes

What a great time we had last week at the beach with part of our extended family. Surely you agree with me that family (whatever form that may take) is a wonderful gift from God. It is a gift that renews and sustains us. It is a gift that deserves our gratitude and our time. I hope we as a church family will always be supportive of a family's time together.

I want to thank Jill Knight for her willingness to serve in my absence as she led our worship through music on July 11. She, like so many others, is so willing to offer back her giftedness. I am also reminded of this as we affirm those who will be leading in our music ministry this coming year. Thanks be to God!

Hey Ainesis Members: You don't need me to remind you that the return to school is rapidly approaching. I do want to remind you that we would like each of you to come for a couple of voice lessons before school starts. Many of you have already come to see me. I am available most any day for the next three weeks, so call me to a set up a time. I enjoy getting to know each of you a little better, and your individual effort in developing your gift of singing will surely make our choir stronger to offer our best to God in worship.
