From Your Pastor...

During the past year we have experienced the loss of many of our good members here at College Park. With each passing, we take time to comfort the grieving and to celebrate the life of the one who has gone to be with our heavenly Father. But it is also important for us to pause occasionally and remember them both individually and corporately, as their lives are a unique part of who we are as a church. This Sunday we will celebrate All Saints Sunday, and I hope you will be able to be here to worship with us. Many churches will wait and follow the liturgical calendar, celebrating All Saints on the first Sunday of November. But since technically All Saints Day is November 1st, we decided to go ahead with this Sunday, since it is presented as Vigil of All Saints on the calendar.

To help us with the service, we will have some special guests. Jeffrey Griffin will be here to sing, as will En Route, the quintet from Appalachian State University that Ward Page is a part of. It should be a wonderful service, and again we encourage you to make plans to worship with us!

Sunday morning we will also have bulletin inserts that present a short introduction to those who are candidates for the upcoming (next week) Deacon election. This is a wonderful slate of candidates, and I am excited that they are willing to serve. If you do not know one or more of the candidates, please take the time to seek them out, and get to know them! In a church of our size it is difficult to get to know everyone, but occasions such as Deacon selection give us good reason to get to know people with whom we would not normally interact. Deacons, by definition, are servant leaders, and we are so grateful for their commitment to serve the body of Christ in this capacity!

This Sunday evening we will take a break from Adult Discipleship, but will continue next week, November 7th.

Have a great week, and we'll...

See You Here Sunday!
Ramon

Deacon election

The election of six new deacons will take place during morning worship on November 7. Ballots will also be available at the 6:00 evening Discipleship classes for those unable to be present on Sunday morning. Proxy ballots are available in the Church Office for those unable to be present on November 7. Deacons will be elected for a 3-year term, beginning January 1.

Candidates whose names will appear on the ballot are:

Garry Crist	Robert Hill	Jim Pernel
Irv Grogan	Bill Hinson	Rusty Rose
Ed Hendricks	Rick Matthews	Russell Talley

Please do not vote for more than six!

In Touch

The Fall Festival is here!

The week of the Fall Festival has finally arrived! Many hours of planning and work have been put in to this year's event, and it is going to be a great day to be at College Park! Have you invited a friend to come with you? Here is a brief overview of what to tell your friends:

Who: Anyone!
What: Fall Festival
When: Saturday, October 30, 5:00-8:00 PM
Where: College Park
Why: Because Fall is not complete without a fun event with food, games & smiles!
How much: Free! Zippo! Nada!

Reminder about the Art Exhibit

Remember that we are having an art exhibit during the festival. There are two categories of art - paper art for the children and apple decorations for everybody else! If you have a child who wants to enter the art contest, have them do a fall-type picture on construction paper. Everyone else—youth, college, singles, couples, moms, dads, grandparents—is welcome to enter an apple in the apple decoration contest. You may even want to do a "group" apple! All you have to do is let your imagination run wild on how to use an apple as the centerpiece of your art project! We hope everyone will enter something in the exhibit. Reminder: All art exhibits need to be brought to the church office no later than 4:30 on Friday!

Final List of Festival Activities

Artwork is just one part of the festival activities. There will be carnival games, inflatable games, food contests, food vendors with FREE food, and a music concert to top off the evening. We want you to be a part of this great event, and we hope that you will invite someone to come with you.
